HOW THINGS LOOK FROM OUR STAND POINT.

The Opinion of The Caucasian and the Opinion of others which we Can Endorse on the Various Topics of the Day.

1890—a happy and prosperous year to all.

A book called "The Life and Death of Jefferson Davis," edited by A. C. Bancroft and published by J. S. Ogilvie, is being widely circulated. While many complimentary things are said of Mr. Davis to blind the unsuspecting reader, yet the covert object of the book is to damage and belittle the majestic fallen chieftain and the great principles for which he ever contended. The book is a failure and a farce. Let no Southern man give it recognition.

The author of this book is not the historian Bancroft.

We see the following sentence in one of the best weeklies in the State: "We send out this week to each one of our subscribers a statement of their account," etc. The editor of the paper is a man of ability and well educated. We have heard one of the best ministers in the State make the same grammatical error more than a dozen times. The fact that such men almost invariably use the plural in such constructions is the best evidence of the necessity for a new pronon of the singular number, common gender.

There is nothing more helpful to a community than a judiciously manage local Building and Loan Association. Taylorsville has one and will find inside of six months that she was wise in organized it. Statesville has one that is now nearly three years old and it is the most beneficient institution in the community. Many worthy people have, through it, been enabled to build and buy homes, others have been enabled to lift mortgages from their property, and to others still, non-borrowers, it has been an invaluable savings institution. It has improved the town, added to its taxable wealth, made "floaters" permanent citizens, taught people the habit of saving and been beneficial every way.—Statesville Landmark.

Christmas, 1889, was phenominal—an accident of the season, the warmest 25th of December on record. The time of evergreens and icicles gave way for balmy weather and spring time. The good cheer that usually abounds around the cheerful fireside gave way for a sun bath and an outdoor romp. The astonished mercury rushed up to 65 degrees and grumbled with the calendar that it had things mixed up; the calendar protested that it was right, but that the clerk of the weather had lost his grip on "Old Sol's" throttle valve. But old Santa Clause was in great luck. Instead of facing the driving snow and pelting rain and sleet on Christmas eve, he had a delightful moonlight, summer night's ride and no smoking chimneys to blind him in his descent.

The weather bureau was so partial to us during the Sampson Fair that we are disposed not to grumble at any of its excentricities, but we must admit that the novelty of this weather amounts to an innovation on on time honored custom, and one that is to be deplored, if Longfellow was right when he said that winter never rots in the skies. For if the usual amount is to come from not out it means a cold late spring, with the chances in favor of another poor crop year.

Let us hope that we are no prophet and that providence has a kinder fate in store for us.

DAVIS' LAST LETTER.

Written to the Committee of the Fayetteville Centennial.—Noble Sentiments and High Praise to North Carolinians.

BEAUVOIR, Miss., Oct. 30th '89.

Messrs. Wharton J. Green, James C McRae, C. W. Broadfoot, N. W. Ray, W.C. McDuffie, Com.

GENTLEMEN:—Your letter inviting me to attend North Carolina's Centennial, to be held at Fayetteville on the 21st of November next, was duly received, but this acknowledgement has been delayed under the hope that an improvement in my health would enable me to be present as invited. As the time approaches I find that cherishen hope unrealized and that I must regretfully confess my inability to join you in the commemorative celebration. It has been my sincere wish to meet with the people of the 'Old North State' on the occasion which will naturally cause them with just pride to trace the historic river of their years to its source in the colony of Albemarle.

All along that river stand monuments of fidelity to the inalienable rights of the people even when an infant resisting successfully executive usurpation and in the difence of the privileges guaranteed by charter boldly defying king, lords and commons. Always self reliant, yet not vainly self assertive, she provided for her own defence while giving material aid to her neigbors, as she regarded all the British colonies of America. Thus she sent troops armed and equipped for service in both Virginia and South Carolina; also dispatched a ship from the port of Wilmington with food for the sufferers in Boston after the closing of that port by Great Britain.

In her declaration that the cause of Boston was the canse of all there was not only the assertion of a community of rights and a purpose to defend them, but self abnegation of the commercial advantages which would probably accrue from the closing of a rival port. Without diminution of regard for the great and good men of other colonies, I have been led to special veneration of the men of North Carolina, as the first to ditinctly declare for state independence and from first to last to uphold the right of a people to govern themselves. I do not propose to discuss the vexed question of the Mecklenburg resolutions of May, 1775, which, from the similarity of expression to the great Declaration of Independence of July, 1776, have created much contention, because the claim of North Carolina rests on a broader foundation than the resolve of the meeting at Mecklenburg, which deserves to be preserved as the outburst of a brave, liberty loving people, on the receipt of news of the combat at Concord between British and citizens of Massachusetts.

The broader foundations referred to are the records of events preceding and succeedig the meeting at Mecklenburg and the proceedings of the provincial Congress which met at Hillsboro in August, 1775. Before the Congress convened North Carolina in disregard of opposition by the Gov. had sent delegates to represent her in the General Congress to be held in Philadelphia, and had denounced the attack on Boston and had appointed committees of safety with such far reaching functions as belong to revolutionary times only. The famous Stamp Act of Parliament was openly resisted by men of the highest reputation, a vessel bringing the stamps was seized and the commander bound not to permit them to be landed. These things were done in open day by men who were not disguised and shunned no qestion.

Before the Congress of the province had assembled the last royal Governor of North Carolina had fled to escape the indignation of a people who, burdened but not bent by oppression, had resolved to live or die as free men. The Congress at Hillsboro went earnestly to work not merely to declare independence, but to provide the means of maintaining it. The Congress feeling quite equal to the occasion, proceeded to make laws for raising and organizing troops, for supplying money and to meet the contingency of a blockade of her seaports, and offered bounties to stimulate to production of articles most useful in time of war.

Death's Shining Marks.

The most striking feature of the year 1889 is the record of disasters by fire and flood, and the list of financial crimes; the most interesting feature of 1888 was the record of politics; of 1887, deaths of eminent persons, of 1886, strikes. OUR YOUNG FOLKS.

Something Interesting to Young Readers of The Caucasian.

[Prepared each week by . A. JOHNSON, to whom all communications intended for this column should be addressed.]

SOME THINGS THAT BOYS SHOULD KNOW.

That a true lady may be found in calico quite as frequently as in velvet.

That a common school education, with common sense, is better than a college education is without it.

That one good, honest trade is worth a dozen professions.

That "honesty is the best policy"—that it is better to be poor than rich on profits of crooked whiskey.

That as they expect to be men some day, they cannot too soon learn to protect the weakand helpless.

DON'T.

Don't judge a man by the clothes he wears. God made one and the tailor the other.

Don't judge him by his family connections, for Cain belonged to a very good family.

"Don't judge a man by his failure in life, for many a man fails because he is too honest to succeed.

Don't judge him by his speech, for the parrot talks, and the tongue is but an instrument of sound.

Don't judge a man by the house he lives in, for the lizzard and rat often inhabit the grandest structures.

Don't judge him by his activity in church affairs, for that is not unfrequentla inspired by hypocritical and selfish motives.

Don't judge him by his lack of display, for the long-eared beast is the humblest of animals, but when aroused is terrible to behold.

Don't take it for granted that because he carries the contribution box he is liberal; he often pays the Lord in that way; and keeps the currency. Neither judge an envelope without knowing its contents, for I have seen lizzards secreted therein.

Some Questions for Our Young Friends to Answer.

Answers to Questions and Enigmas in Last Issue.

1. The first bird sent out of the ark was the Raven.
2. In the artic regions the day and night are the same length—six months long.
3. Washington Irving wrote Rip Van Winkle.
4. Senators Matt. W. Ransom and Z. B. Vance. Representatives C. W. McClammy, Alfred Rowland, B. H. Bunn, J. W. Henderson, Brower, Ewart, Cheatham, Latham.
5. Gov. Dudley was the first Governor of this State elected by the people.
6. The present Constitution of North Carolina was adopted in 1836.

We have received answers from the following:
Eula Register, Clinton.
H. M. Warren, Godwin.

WHO DOES HE BELONG TO?

Probably very few people know it, but it is an interesting fact that there is a boy in the State penitentiary who was born there. His mother and father were both serving out terms in the penitentiary at the time of his birth, and they are both there still, and so is the boy. Somebody has raised the question as to who the boy belongs to, and the opinion has been expressed that he belongs to the State. The question is an interesting one.—Mews and Observer.

Nervous Derangement and Constipation.

After years of suffering from nervous derangement and constipation, and after being treated by several leading physicians, from whom I obtained no relief, I was induced to try S. S. S.

Soon after commencing its use, I found my appetite much improved, and that the use of cathartics, which I had taken almost daily for twelve months, was no longer necessary.

Since childhood I have been subject to sick and nervous headaches, but since December 1, 1888, at which time I commenced taking S. S. S., I have had only one attack, and that was when I neglected to take the Specific.

I do not now have to take purgative medicine. J. E. REID, Bolling, Ala.

Tormenting Skin Diseases.

For twenty years I was troubled with a tormenting itching skin disease, which at times caused me great annoyance and loss of sleep. I was treated by the best local physicians, but received no relief from them. I finally concluded to take Swift's Specific (S. S. S.), a half dozen bottles of which effected what I consider a permanent cure, as I have felt no symptoms of the disease for over a year.

CLINTON, N. C.—JAN. 2, 1890.

Within the past month the South has lost two of its greatest men—Jefferson Davis and Henry W. Grady.

A recent survey takes Bedloe's Island, on which is the celebrated statue of Liberty, from New York State and gives it to New Jersey.

Gladstone's birth day was last Sunday. Orator, Statesman, author, student and the leader of a great party at 80 years of age—he is indeed a wonderful man physically and intellectually.

Harrison sends a delegation to witness the crowning of the king of Portugal, but refuses to recognize the United States of Brazil. What kind of a government have we?

The Russian influenza, or La Grippe (the grip) as it is commonly called, has invaded America and thousands are suffering from it in the North. 100,000 cases are reported in Philadelphia alone. Several cases have been fatal in New York. It seems to be a more serious form of the malady than the "Tyler Grip" that was prevalent in 1840.

The committee appointed by the last Legislature to examine the matter of taxing the railroads that claim immunity from taxes is now in session at Raleigh. Senator E. W. Kerr, of Sampson, is chairman. The other members are Senators Aycock and Representatives Sutton, Carter and Holeman.

Later—The committee, after a preliminary survey of the work to be done, adjourned to meet again the 15th of next April.

THE DAVIS LAND COMPANY.

Hon. Jefferson Cavis died owing about $40,000. His property consists of about 6,000 acres of land, autside of his homestead, which would be sacrificed if forced on the market for cash. Therefore a movement has been put on foot for the Southern people to buy the land by popular subscriptions, that is by by buying shares or portions of shares, at $10.00 per whole share, for which a deed or certificate of stock to the amount will be issued to the subscriber. Ex-Congressman Wharton J. Green is agent for North Carolina. We have been appointed agent for Sampson county; therefore we are ready to receive subscrip- to this popular and patriotic movement, which will be published, the amount forwarded and the stock issued.

NEGROES SOLD AT $5.00 IN ARKANSAS.

A few weeks since a large numbea of negroes left Faisons with a labor agent for Arkansas. Last Thursday Henry Armwood, one of the gang, appeared on the streets of Clinton. He had run away and come back to his abandoned home, which is in Piney Grove township. He says that upon reaching their destination some were sold by the agent into contract labor bondage at the highest bid, which was five dollars a head—slavery worse than that before the war. Here he gave them the slip and returned, as he happened to have enough money to bring him back to dear old Sampson.

Another negro writing back to his people says:

"Tell all who want to come West to pay their way; if they don't hell fire will be their portion. I have not time to tell you about Mississippi; but tell all to keep away from there."

Later—We have had an interview with Henry Armwood, which will be published next week.

What a delightful Christmas Day we had. Nothing to mar it except the inevitable firecracker and fire water, both noisy and disagreeable.—Norfold Landmark.

A GREAT LOSS

Scarcely had ceased the outward demonstrations of grief over the death of Jefferson Davis, around whose name is entwined much that is dear to the Southern people, when the whole nation was shocked and grieved over the premature death of Henry W. Grady, in whom much of Southern hope was centred, and one who could command more Northern ears than any Southerner since the war. Had he died a few years earlier he would have been almost unknown, but too speeches, one at a New England banquet, two years since, the other 12 days before his death, at a meeting of the merchants of Boston, have made him famous as an orator of power and an advanced thinker and far reaching statesman. His death, in his prime, at 38 years of age, is indeed a great loss to the whole Nation, and especially to the South.

It is only a question of time, and a short time, too, as to when your rheumatism will yield to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Fashion is gently running away from vulgarity, and afraid of being overtaken by it. It is a sign of two things not far asunder.

Epoch.

The transition from long, lingering and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is treasured in the memory and the agency whereby the good health has been attained is gratefully blessed. Hence it is that so much is heard in praise of Electric Bitters. So many feel they owe their restoration to health to the use of the Great Alterative and Tonic. If you are troubled with any disease of Kidneys, Liver or Stomach, of long or short standing, you will surely find relief by use of Electric Bitters. Sold at 50c and $1 per bottle at R. H. Holidays Drug Store.

Be Sure

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other.

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." MRS. ELLA A. GOFF, 61 Terrace Street, Boston.

—Protracted meeting will commence in the Presbyterian church in Clinton on Friday before the second Sunday in January, conducted by State Evangelist Morton.

—Matt Faison, colored, who robbed Mr. Charlie Butler's dwelling on Christmas day, was picked up by our vigilant Chief of police, W. J. King, on last Monay at Warsaw. He was with a gang of exodusters bound for Georgia.

—The young gentlemen who gave the Oyster Roast at Col. J. R. Beaman's, wish to return thanks to the host and hostess and especially to Mr. S. G. Worth, without whose kind and efficent supervision the entertainment could not have been the complete success that it was.

—A half a dozen or more young men are indebted to Miss Mamie Faison for spending last Friday evening most pleasantly. At about ten o'clock the party adjourned from the whist and euchre tables to the dining hall where a deligtful collation of dainty viands was served.

—An expert from New York has been at the Carolina Veneer Works for a week or more putting in one of the Harker Sprinkler Systems. The The reservoir of water is on a high frame standing by and towering above the buildings. If the factory should catch on fire the sprinklers will work automatically.

—Almost a serious accident happened to a factory girl, Miss Dolly Griffith, at the Carolina Veneer Works yesterday. Her dress was caught in one of the rapidly revolving butter dish machines and almost literally torn from her. She was thrown violently against the mathine, but only slightly hurt.

—Ninety five negroes have left Clinton since Tuesday morning for Georgia. Pity they did not take their families with them. A train of 14 crowded cars loaded with negroes for Georgia passed down the W. & W. road Tuesday, More than a thousand negroes have left Eastern Carolina within the past three days.

—A large balloon, probably 30 feet in diameter, with a red light attached, but with no one in it, was sent up from Clinton amid shouts and applause on Christmas evening. Hundreds of gazers watched the flaming air ship till it appeared as a star—a point of light in the hea vens. Can any one inform us where it fell?

—Mr. Bennett, one of the distillers here, bought on Tuesday, Dec. 31st, from Mr. Daniel Chesnutt a barrel of 1890 turpentine. The boxes were cut in the fall with the expectation of dipping virgin next spring, but so warm has been the weather that the boxes filled and Mr. Chesnutt proceeded to dip. Is there anything on record to equal it?

—The young folks' Club met last Friday night at the residence of Mr. Abram Hobbs. The membership of the Club is about twenty five. The evening was certainly one of jollity and good cheer. A most palatable repast was served late in the evening. The young men of Clinton are certainly fortunate that the town is blessed with such girls as ours.

-Mr. O. F. Herring, Register of Deeds, requests us to state that the combination of the safe in his office is out of order so that he can not open it, but that as soon as this difficulty is overcome that all business submitted to him will receive prompt attention. But marrying can go on as usual, for our good hearted Register has had us to print a lot of license so that the loving couples may not be deterred from the bliss that is to be.

—The young ladies' Club held its regular meeting on last Monday evening at the residence of Mr. W. G. Hubbard In spite of the very inclement weather there was a large attendance. The genial and gracious host and hostess did much to contribute to the pleasure of the occasion. In fact time did fly with such a silken wing that the hour for departure struck all with Cinderilla like astonishment. The next meeting will be at the residence of Col. J. R. Beaman on Tuesday night, January 17th. [illegible] delightful meetings [illegible] of every [illegible] or postpone [illegible]

—The Carolina Veneer Works is over run with orders. We understand from the Supt. that the factory is now filling an order from Jacksonville, Fla., for 6000 crates and 200,000 berry baskets. They have a standing order for as many butter dishes and orange boxes as they are able to turn out. The capacity of the former is now about one million and of the latter fifty thousand per month. If Clinton had several more such enterprises, its population would soon be 5000.

J. E. BRISTOWE, P. C.

Rev. Mr. Meek's Lecture.

Rev. O. P. Meeks lectured in the Baptist church on "The Home" last night. He said: The home lies at the base of the entire social fabric, hence the tremendous influence of the family life upon the national life. Other social and economic questions have too long diverted attention from the family life, and tend to disintegrate rather than to build up society. He called attention to several evil causes that assail the integrity of the home, such as foreign or European influences, the vanity of fashion, the open saloon and the various social vices. These are the destuctive agencies of the home. What shall be the constructive agencies? Some of those he mentioned are, the entire destruction of polygamy, just and uniform divorce laws, the better filling up and adorning of the home, keeping out bad literature by putting in that which is good and attractive, more time and attention of both father and mother to the religious, social and intellectual training of their children at home, rather than to leave such important work entirely to the day and sabbath schools. He gave many interesting and instructive points which space and time forbid us to mention.

The Caucasian for 1890.

Father time is to-day on his second day's march around the 1890th circle by the christian calendar. That the "happy new year" may be a happy old year a twelve month hence is our sincere greeting and earnest hope for us all. Less than two years since commenced our connection with THE CAUCASIAN, and a little more than a year since we become sole editor and proprietor. We have striven to do what we conceived to be our duty as the editor of a country newspaper. Our swelling subscription list (with nearly a thousand new subscribers) tells the story of an appreciating public. For this and the many kind things said of us and the paper we are profoundly gratified.

We make no promises for the coming year, for we will at all times give you the very best paper within our power. Our success will be measured by your kind, partial, appreciative and broad and generous support, which we shall strive to deserve.

Let every good citizen come to our assistance and help swell the subscription list to 2000.

Masquerade Ball.

The Masquerade ball at the Murphy House on New Year's eve was quite a success. Nearly all the disguises were complete and some of the costumes were very novel and pretty. The disguises of Messrs. W. S. Micks and Charlie Patterson were so cleverly done that they escaped the detection of any one. Mayor Thomson, disguised as a lady, was charmingly sly and coy and very popular with the boys, much to their chagrin after the unmasking. Mary Herring, the little daughter of Mr. Henry Herring, personated the Farmers' Alliance. The skirt of her dress was pine straw bagging with the word "Alliance" diagonally across it in large letters. The waist was of cotton cloth literally covered with cotton bolls open with long locks hanging. Misses Bettie Murphy, Muriel Richardson and Mamie Oates did great honor to our office by wearing costumes made of CAUCASIANS. The editor was for once proud of what his paper contained. The costume of Miss Bettie Murphy was, indeed, very pretty. Every inch of it was made of paper, the skirt and waist plaited, while across, in a very artistic manner, ran bars of the head line of the paper—THE CAUCASIAN. She wore a very becoming and stylish turban of the same material, with THE CAUCASIAN head line forming the bar in front. She carried in her hand also a CAUCASIAN flag. Miss Mittie Beaman, bearing a U. S. flag, was attired in a striking and becoming costume of stars and stripes, with a cone shaped turban of the same. Misses Ina Hobbs and Rena Micks personated Martha Washington. Miss Lillie Moore, a nun. There are other costumes that deserve special mention, but space forbids, if we can stop here without naming the fair ones. Just at 12 o'clock the bells tolled out the old and pealed in joyfully the new year. One more quadrille and the party adjourned in the early morn of January the 1st 1890.

LITTLE COHARIE.

Miss Bettie Fisher, of Owenville has been spending the merry christmas holidays with relatives in Cumberland.

The laying of ties and rail on the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. is now going on at and near Roseboro.

Mr. Street Brewer and wife who have been visiting friends and relatives in Moore county returned home on the 27th instant to take charge of their school at Hayne.

"PLUG."

Toot! toot!! went the whistle and in came the train to Roseboro for the first time on last Tuesday evening.

Mr. John W. Underwood received a painful hurt last week while hauling timber. The falling sweep of a timber wagon struck and badly cut and bruised his nose and upper lip. Dr. J. A. Stevens was called in and dressed the wound.

SOUTH CLINTON.

We are pained to learn that Mrs. Everett Peterson is quite low.

HONEYCUTTS.

Rev. D. C. Rogers of Harrell's Store a young man of about 20 years of age filled the pulpit at Salem on last Sunday. Mr. Rodgers has a very pleasant style and made a good impression upon his congregation. His mother Mrs. Rodgers has recently moved her family consisting of herself and two sons into the neighborhood to get the advantages of Salem school. We hope the school will continue prosperous and their stay in the neighborhood permanent.

PINEY GROVE.

There was a much enjoyed social gathering at the residence of Mr. Daniel Kornegay on last Friday night. Though of an impromptu nature there was quite a number of young ladies and young men present, and the evening was spent as pleasantly as could have been wished for.

WESTBROOKS.

Married, at the residence of the bride's mother, on the 29th day of December, 1889, Mr. E. M. Lee and Miss Sarah R. Frazier, Allen Daughtry, J. P., officiating. The attendants were as follows: J. M. Parker with Miss Nannie Frazier, J. S. Williams with Miss Nora Bizzeil, J. E. Warren with Miss Sarah Williams, J. B. Lee with Miss Annie Williams.

HALLS.

J. C. McCullen and little daughter, of Conway, Ark., are visiting friends and relatives in Sampson.

TAYLOR'S BRIDGE.

We have been shown, by Mr. A. H. Merritt, an old Spanish coin, made in 1808. It is silver and excellently preserved.

Fox Chases.

The second fox chase of the season by the Clinton fox club took place last Friday morning. The party of fourteen started at 6 o'clock, at 7:30 the fox was jumped and after a very pretty and exciting chase of two hours the handsome annimal was caught. The $10.00 in prizes offered by Dr. J. A. Stevens was awarded as follows:—

The $5.00 prize for the dog that lead the chase was awarded to the owner, Mr. Abram Matthis, the second prize $2.00 to Mr. Harvey Scott, the $3.00 prize for the hunter who first got to the fox when caught to Mr. Harvey Scott. But the most highly prized prize, the brush, the trophy of the chase was won by Miss Mittie Beaman, in whose cape it floated gracefully, "the cynosure of neighboring eyes" as the party returned homeward triumphant. Just after the chase, when the appetites of all had been whetted by the exercise, bracing air, excitement and success, Mrs. M. M. Killett invited the party to lunch, and a royal lunch it was. Never did a hungry party more enjoy a timely treat. Upon reaching town the party was again invited to lunch at the residence of Mr. R. J. Williams. The whole party is much indebted to our kind host and his charming wife for the handsome way in which they were entertained and feasted. Take it all in all, we doubt if ever there was in the history of the county a more enjoyable chase. The club followed up its success of Friday with another chase Saturday morning, this time scoring a double victory, reducing by two the population of the Reynard tribe.

Personals.

Master Richard Hubbard of Fayetteville spent the holidays in town.

Mr. Eldrige Lee, a merchant of Dunn, gave us a pleasant call on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Johnson returned last night from a visit to Wilmington.

Rev. C. P. Jerome who has been visiting in Randolph returned last Friday night.

Mr. R. B. Strickland of McRae, Ga., was in town Tuesday stopping with Rev. C. P. Jerome.

Mr. Moseley Hubbard of Wilmington has been spending a few days in town.

Mr. J. A. McDowell of Sumner, and J. A. Williams of Eunice, Ga., have been spending a few days in town.

Rev. Erskine Pope of Chalk Level, N. C., piad us a pleasant call while visiting relatives in this county during the holidays.

Mr. J. M. McIver of Moore county, today's bridegroom, (McIver—Anderson) was registered at the Murphy House last night.

Miss Mamie Faison of the faculty of Peace Institute, who has been spending the holidays at home, Capt. W. L. Faison's, returned yesterday to Raleigh.

Mr. James A. Moseley of the firm of McKimmon, Moseley and McGee, Raleigh, N. C., and his wife have been spending the holidays with relatives in Clinton.

Mr. Duncan E. McIver of Moore county is in town. Our readers will remember that he came within a few votes of receiving the nomination for State Auditor in the last State Convention. It was for him that Sampson cast her vote till the last ballot.

The Pulpit and the Stage.

Rev. F. M. Swat, Pastor United Brethren Church, Blue Mound, Kan., says: "I feel it my duty to tell the wha wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased, and my parishioners thought I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles ot Dr. King's New Discovery and am now sound and well, gaining 20 pounds in weight."

Arthur Love, Manager Loves Funny Folks Combination, writes: "After a thorough trial and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, beats 'em all, and cures when everything else fails. The greatest kindness I can do my many thousand friends is to urge them to try it." Free trial bottles at R. H. Holliday's Drug Store. Regular size 50 cts. and $1.00.

Ninety-nine per cent. of ambition to try, and one per cent. of talent, is all that is necessary to success in whatever we undertake.

Rheumatism

is undoubtedly caused by lactic acid in the blood. This acid attacks the fibrous tissues, and causes the pains and aches in the back, shoulders, knees, ankles, hips and wrists. Thousands of people have found in Hood's Sarsaparilla a positive cure for rheumatism. This medicine, by its purifying action, neutralizes the acidity of the blood, and also builds up and strengthens the whole body.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy,

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Oct. 23, 1889.

Mrs. Joe Person, Madame:—About April, 1887, I treated Sam Privett, a lad about 15 years of age, for scrofula, afflicting the glands of the neck. In spite of all treatment it grew from bad to worse, finally supperating and becoming running sores. In the latter part of that year you were in Goldsboro and saw the boy and proposed to treat him. I had done all that I could for him and considered his chances for life very small, and told you so, and that if you could even benefit him with your Remedy I would give you a certificate of that fact. That you have done your part the boy is now a living witness, and I shall not hesitate to furnish your Remedy in any similar case I may be called on to treat. Very truly.

SPECIAL FEATURES.

Herbert Ward, Stanley's Companion.

Herbert Ward, the companion of Stanley in his explorations in Africa, is the only white man connected with Stanley's African explorations who has ever returned alive from the "Dark Continent." Mr. Ward's articles running through eight numbers of the "Ledger" are of the most intensely interesting description, and cover five years of his adventures in Africa, and they will be illustrated by sketches made by Mr. Ward, and by the reproduction of photographs taken by him in Africa. These pictures will throw much light upon the manners and customs of the hitherto unknown cannibal tribes of Africa.

The Story of a Forsaken Inn, (A SERIAL STORY) By Anna Katharine Green.

Life in British America, By Rev. E. R. Young.

Being the adventures and experiences of Rev. E. R. Young, the celebrated missionary, and his wife during their residence in the Polar region twelve hundred miles north of St. Paul, in which Dr. Young narrates how he tamed and taught the native wild Indians of the Northwest; how he equipped himself for and how he made his perilous sledging and hazardous canoe trips when visiting all the Indian settlements within five hundred miles of his home.

Honorable Henry W. Grady

Contributes a series of six articles on the "Wonderful Development of the Industrial Pursuits of the New South."

American Cookery, (A SERIES OF ARTICLES) By Miss Parloa.

Giving the reasons why it is imperfect, and some ways by which it may be improved.

Nihilism in Russia, By Leo Hartmann, Nihilist.

Leo Hartmann, a fugitive from Russian authorities, has been connected with the most daring feats of the Russian Nihilists. Mr. Hartmann shows how the intelligent people of Russia are becoming Nihilists in consequence of the despotism of the form of government. A participant in plots to kill the Czar, such as the blowing up of the Winter Palace, he is able to give true information as to how this and other great schemes were accomplished. The situation in Russia is sufficient to increase the love of every true American for our form of government.

EXTRA SOUVENIR SUPPLEMENTS.

Among these beautifully illustrated four-page souvenirs, which will be sent free to every subscriber, will be a poem by John Greenleaf Whittier, Illustrated by Howard Pyle.

Written for the "Ledger" by Mr. Whittier in his 82nd year. Another souvenir will be a beautifully illustrated poem written by Honorable James Russell Lowell.

The Ledger will contain the best Serial and Short Stories, Historical and Biographical Sketches, Travels, Wit and Humor, and everything interesting to the Household.

Clara—Mother, Charles was very rude last night.

Mother—Well, don't you know what it means?

No, I don't.

He is trying to pick a quarrel with you so he can get out of giving you a Christmas present. I know these men.—Exchange.

Beware of Ointment for Catarrh that Contains Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and is made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co.

☞ Sold by Druggist, price 75c per bottle.

"What did you have on your Christmas tree, Softly?" inquired Nibson.

"Myself. I had to climb a tree to get out of the way of my creditors."

Does Experience Count?

It does, in every line of business, and especially in compounding and preparing medicines. This is illustrated in the great superiority of Hood's Sarsaparilla over other preparations, as shown by the remarkable cures it has accomplished. The head of the firm of C. I. Hood & Co. is a thoroughly competent and experienced pharmacist, having devoted his whole life to the study and actual preparation of medicines. He is also a member of the Massachusetts and American Pharmaceutical Association, and continues actively devoted to supervising the preparation of and managing the business connected with Hood's Sarsaparilla. Hence the superiority and peculiar merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla is built upon the most substantial foundations. In its preparation there is represented all the knowledge which modern research in medical science has developed, combined with long experience, brain-work and experiment. It is only necessary to give this medicine a fair trial to realize its great curative value.

First Female Spirit—Why are you unhappy? Why do you weep?

Second Female Spirit—Look at the inscription on my tomb! They've made me a year older than I really was! Oh, I shall never know what rest means.—Life.

Inherited Blood Poison.

How many people there are whose distress from sores, aches, pains and eruptive tendencies are due to inherited blood poison. Bad blood passes from parent to child, and it therefore is the duty of husband and wife to keep their blood pure. This is easily accomplished by a timely use of B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm). Send to Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, for book of most convincing proof.

James Hill, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "My two sons were afflicted with blood poison, which doctors said was hereditary. They both broke out in sores and eruptions which B. B. B. promptly controlled and finally cured completely."

Mrs. S. M. Williams, Sandy, Texas, writes: "My three poor afflicted children, who inherited blood poison, have improved rapidly after a use of B. B. B. It is a God-send."

[illegible] W[illegible], [illegible], writes: "Blood poison forced me to take my bed, [illegible] appetite, and [illegible] became a large [illegible], which grew worse every day until doctors gave me up to die. I only weighed 120 pounds when I began to take B. B. B., and 12 bottles increased my weight to 180 pounds and made me sound and well. I never knew what good health was before."

TONSORIAL.

When you wish an easy shave,
As good as barber ever gave,
Just call on me at my saloon
At morning, eve or noon.
I cut and dress the hair with grace,
To suit the contour of the face.
My room is neat and towels clean,
Scissors sharp and razors keen.
And everything I think you'll find,
To suit the face and please the mind,
And all my art and skill can do
If you just call, I'll do for you.
